Sue Boyden O'Malley, 52, of rural Ambia, died at 3:27 a.m. Sunday, April 20, 2003, in St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Lafayette, Indiana.

Born Feb. 6, 1951, in Watseka, Illinois, she married Thomas S. O'Malley on June 17, 1972, at Wellington, Illinois. He survives.

Mrs. O'Malley was a partner of the O'Malley Agency, with offices in Milford, Illinois and Lafayette. She was the past owner of the Wright Travel Agency of Milford and Lafayette.

She was a member of Wellington United Methodist Church, where she played the piano, sang in the choir, taught Sunday school for many years and had served with the mission group. She was a volunteer for many organizations, helping with Meals on Wheels, the hospice and as a Junior Achievement instructor in Boswell. She was a former member of Unique Milford Merchants Association, an avid sports fan and past president of the Boswell Little League. She also sang with the Mussettes from Oxford, and enjoyed travel.

Surviving with her husband are her parents, Charles and Geraldine Allen Boyden, a daughter, Alicia G. O'Malley, a son, T. J. O'Malley and a brother, Alan Boyden (wife: Debbie)
