

Calvin Tyler

September 14, 1948 - September 14, 2011

Calvin Arthur Tyler, 63, of Danville, formerly of Hoopeston, died at 5:56 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 14, 2011, at Provena United Samaritans Medical Center in Danville.

He was born June 27, 1948, in Danville to Earl Tyler and Sylvia (Sinn) Tyler.

He married Brenda (Brandenburg) Tyler June 13, 1970, at First Christian Church in Hoopeston. She survives in Danville.

Other survivors include daughters, Heidi LaBounty of Danville and Amy (Thomas) Kirts of Danville; sister, Joyce Garrison of Hoopeston; and brothers, Larry (Marilyn) Tyler of Rankin; and Scott Tyler of Hoopeston. Calvin also is survived by six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Randall Tyler.

Calvin worked at the American Can Company for 32 years. He worked in quality control until his retirement. After his retirement, he worked at the New Life Christian Center in Danville and later the Hoopeston hospital.

Calvin attended the Rock Church in Danville. He served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. Calvin enjoyed gardening and landscaping.

He volunteered in the Angel Food Ministry and took several mission trips. He loved the Lord Jesus Christ with all his heart and served him any way he could.

His greatest enjoyment was spending time with his grandchildren, family and friends. Calvin will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved him.

rites accorded by the Hoopston American Legion and Hoopston VFW posts. Visitation:
2-5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 18, at The Rock Church.

Memorials: The Rock Church, 20 Poland Road, Danville, IL, 61832.