

Faye Marie Mott

May 7, 1927 ~ March 29, 2014 (age 86)

Faye Marie Mott, 86, of Hoopeston, passed away at 4:50 p.m. Saturday, March 29, 2014, at Heritage Health in Hoopeston.

Faye was born on May 7, 1927, in Buckley, Illinois, the daughter of Charley Noble and Cora (Hurn-Jackson) Mott.

She is survived by a brother- Cleo (Sibyl) Mott of Texas; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, five sisters and six brothers.

Faye graduated from John Greer High School in 1945 and attended classes at Danville Junior College. She was selected as Mrs. Hoopeston in 1948. Faye was the first queen selected when the National Sweetcorn Festival started back up after WWII. She worked as an administrative assistant at FMC, Social Security Administration and American Can for over 20 years, until she retired in 1987. Faye was a member of the First Christian Church. She enjoyed listening to big band music, working in her yard and discussing politics.

Graveside services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, April 2, 2014, at Floral Hill Cemetery, with Steve Unger officiating. The family has entrusted the Brown-Alkire Funeral Chapel to assist them in honoring Faye's life. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to the American Heart Association or American Lung Association.
