Marion Earle Moore, 68, of Hoopeston died at 10:40 a.m. Thursday (Jan. 6, 2005) at Hoopeston Community Memorial Nursing Home.

Mr. Moore was born Jan. 14, 1936 in Prairie Green Township, a son of Herbert and Grace Kunce Moore. He married Shirley Ann Holt on Sept. 2, 1956 in Wellington. She survives.

Also surviving are two daughters, Terry Kappes and Joy Langellier; a son, Herb Moore; three step-granddaughters and a step-great-grandson.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Mr. Moore lived most of his life in the Wellington-Prairie Green area. He attended country schools and graduated from Wellington High School in 1954. He had worked for Lockhart Grain and Feed in Wellington, FMC Corp., Joan of Arc Canning Co. and Stokely-Van Camp Canning Co. in Hoopeston. He farmed and drove a school bus and later was a self-employed truck grain hauler. He became ill in 1992 and had resided at the nursing home for more than four years.

He was a member of Wellington United Methodist Church. He enjoyed square dancing, camping and playing euchre.
