Betty L. Drollinger, 74, of Hoopeston died at 3:45 p.m. Saturday, June 30, 2007, at the Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital.

Born March 1, 1933, at Forbus, Tenn., she was the daughter of Osco and Ruth (Albertson) Neal. She married Earl J. Drollinger on March 25, 1950, at Wellington. He survives.

Also surviving is one daughter, Sandy (Greg) Boardman of Wishon, Calif.; three sons, Michael (Deborah) Drollinger, Rod (Karie) Drollinger and Scott Drollinger, all of Hoopeston; nine grandchildren; one great-grandchild; four brothers, Charles Neal of Harrisburg, Robert (Pat) Neal of Watseka, Dennis (Beverly) Neal of Rossville and John (Joan) Neal of Sherwood, Ore.; and one sister, Dean (Richard) Hartman of Watseka. Her parents, one brother and one daughter, (Elizabeth Ann) preceded her in death.

Betty had worked as an office clerk for Dr. Richard A. Cuonzo for 15 years. She had been a member of the former First Assembly of God Church in Hoopeston.

Betty had served as a Den Mother for the Hoopeston Cub Scouts. She enjoyed cooking, gardening, traveling and reading. Her most enjoyable moments were spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren.
