"Marva Jeanne (Custer) Webb, 52, Williamsport; died at 11:45 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 10, 1998 at her residence, after an extended illness. She was born in Frankfort, July 2, 1945, the daughter of Marvin L. and Norma Jeanne Reed Custer. She married James H. Webb, June 2, 1967 in Hoopeston, Ill. He is an associate of Custer Insurance Agency. He survives.

She graduated from Hoopeston High School in 1963. She had lived in Peoria and Hoopeston, Ill. before moving to Williamsport in 1977. She was a librarian at Washington Township Public Library in Williamsport and resigned two years ago due to ill health. Previously, she was employed as a teller and cashier at City National Bank in Hoopeston. She was a member of the Williamsport Christian Church where she worked with Bible School and was a Sunday school teacher for several years. She was an officer in the local chapter of the American Cancer Society, Happy Homemakers Home Economics Club and was the registrar for the Girl Scout Council. She was also a board member and secretary-treasurer of the Little League Association. She was a member of Epsilon Sigma Sorority. She loved Seeger sports.

Surviving, besides the husband, are: two sons, Jason C. Webb, a graduate student at New Mexico State University; Christopher M. Webb, University of Southern Indiana, Evansville; a daughter, Elizabeth A. Webb, at home; a sister, Judith (Roger) Davis, Broken Arrow, Okla.; a brother, Terry R. Custer, Decatur, Ill.; her mother, Jeanne Custer, Hoopeston, Ill.; two nieces and a nephew. She was preceded in death by her father, Marvin in 1993.

Friends may call at Fisher Funeral Home, Williamsport, after 5 p.m. Wednesday. Funeral services will be held in the Williamsport Christian Church at 11 a.m. Thursday with the Rev. Don Williams officiating. The body will lie in state one hour prior to service time. Burial will follow in Floral Hill Cemetery, Hoopeston, Ill. Memorials may be made to the Williamsport

Christian Church, New Wing Fund and the First Christian Church, Hoopston,
Ill." – Fountain County Neighbor, January 13, 1998
