Charles Wayne Irvin, 76, of Lake Alfred, Fla., formerly of Wellington, died at 11:55 a.m. Sunday, March 2, 2008, at his residence.

He was born Feb. 23, 1932, in Rankin, the son of Harry Irvin and Edna Fisher Irvin. He married Norma Tothoroh Dec. 30, 1955, at the Prairie Green Church of Christ in Wellington. She survives in Wellington. Other survivors: one daughter, Penny Irvin of Lake Alfred, Fla.; one son, Michael "Doc" Irvin of Hopedale, Ill.; three brothers, Melvin (Barb) Irvin of Rankin, Lee Irvin of Rankin and Ray Irvin of Lancaster, Pa. Mr. Irvin is also survived by his sister-in-law, Jo Irvin of Rankin; special godchildren: Samantha Bruens and Lucas Burge, both of Wellington. He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Harry, a sister, Imogene, and two nephews, Mark and Todd.

Charles was retired from the Joan of Arc Canning Company after working for 28 years. He was a member of the Havendale Christian Church of Auburndale, Fla., and a past member of the Prairie Green Church of Christ. Mr. Irvin was a United States Army veteran serving during the Korean War. He was an avid Chicago Cubs fan and loved to watch TV.
