Patricia A. "Sis" Moore, 72, of Danville, passed away at 9:20 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 19, 2005, at The Waters of Covington Nursing Home in Covington, Ind.

Patricia was born Oct. 10, 1933, in Olney, the daughter of Harold "Hub" and Mary Webber Huber. After two previous marriages, she married Henry "Bob" Moore on June 25, 1975. They were married for 32 years before he was taken to heaven in 1999.

She is survived by daughters, Jan Hodges, Julie Mannin and Mary (Don) Davis, all of Danville; sons, Bob (Donna) Scott and John Williams of Danville; stepdaughter, Dana (Brad) Wheeler of Danville, stepson, Jeff Moore of Danville; brothers, John (Julie) Huber of Ottawa and Mike (Kerrie) Huber of Vancouver, Wash.; sister, Toni (Charlie) Cooper of Houston, Tex.; a special aunt and uncle, Earl and Hilma Koehler of Mount Carmel; five granddaughters, two great-grandsons and three great-granddaughters.

She was preceded in death by her parent and stepmother, Blanche "Teet" Huber.

Pat graduated from John Greer High School in 1951 and from St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing in Danville in 1954. She worked in several areas of nursing in her career until retiring from the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Danville in 1995. She was a life member of the St. Elizabeth Nurses Alumni. Pat loved her family very much and her children and great-grandchildren were her life. She enjoyed reading and traveling.
