Sandra Christine Cramer, 58, of Hoopeston, died at 11:10 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 17, 2008, at her home.

She was born March 2, 1949, in Danville, the daughter of Talmage Eugene Dalton and Patricia Earline (Butts) Langford. She married Alva Ray Cramer on April 4, 1997, at their home. He survives. Other survivors include one daughter, Michelle Dodson of Burlington, Ky.; three sons, Todd (Elaine) Crose and Bill (Melissa) Crose, both of Hoopeston and Scott (Kim) Cramer of Smartsville, Calif.; four sisters, Marcy Dalton of Tilton, Shelia Metheny of Fisher, Tammy Dalton of Hoopeston and Melissa (Ronnie) Pate of Danville; one brother, James (Elizabeth) Dalton of France; and one sister-in-law, Kathy Dalton of Hoopeston. She is also survived by 13 grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Talmage Eugene Dalton and Patricia Earline (Butts) Langford; one brother, Robert Dalton; her stepparents and a stepson.

Mrs. Cramer had worked in her earlier years at Schumacher Electric, Howard's and Rantoul Products. She spent her later years taking care of her family. Sandra had a real gift for floral arranging for special events. She was an avid book reader, enjoyed collecting frogs, playing bingo, going to flea markets and yard sales. She also took much enjoyment in attending her grandchildren's sporting events.
